Next meeting - August 21, 7 pm Pembroke Pines Police Department

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Summer is almost over and a new school year is about to begin. Please observed the school's speed zone because there will be a lot of buses on the road starting the 20th.

Sorry to say that the picnic was cancelled due to the bad weather that was predicted. As it turned out, the day for the picnic was hot and muggy. It just shows that we can't always trust the weather people and their predictions.

Our speaker for our next meeting is John Casbarro, Regional Director with KAPOW.

KAPOW introduces students to career awareness through lessons taught by local business volunteers. For the first time, KAPOW has combined volunteers from the City with local business volunteers to work with the students at the Pembroke Pines Charter FSU Elementary School.

We are proud that some of our members are volunteers for this program. They volunteer once a month, giving the kids a real life, hands-on experience. This is a very rewarding and successful program.

Hope to see you at our meeting Tuesday.

HERE WE GO AGAIN

By Bruce Eisner

The new ENJOY THE CITY books are out and are better than ever. They still sell for only $20.00. Your investment can be returned three fold just by shopping at Publix. The coupons are valid through June 30, 2013.

The books will be available at the next meeting. This year, however, in an effort to raise more funds for the CPAAA, the books have been purchased for sale outright.....instead of consignment, as we have in the past.

See you at the 8/21 meeting. Bring your check book.

"Here's your eighty-fifth Warning ticket, and again I'll have to confiscate this Free Dozen Donut Coupon."
